“We all have to exit at some point – you’re either bought out, pushed out, or wheeled out!”

Warren Buffett

WHY SELL?

THE CHALLENGES JUST KEEP ON COMING

COVID reflections / change in direction / approach

Surge in new consolidators funded by PE money

Regulation – Consumer Duty, PI costs, rising costs

Ageing Adviser Base – we aren't getting any younger...

Access to capital / cost of capital for future trading

Tempting financial return for your life's work – high multiples

BREAK- OPEN DISCUSSION

LET'S GET THE FINER DETAIL

WHAT DOES THE DEAL LOOK LIKE? FOR YOU

Financial Terms

STANDARD

- Cash up front (50%) plus earn out over time
- Multiple (typically 2-4x) of recurring income
- Instalments paid over 2/3 years with targets to hit

VARIATIONS

- Cash plus shares – nominally increases multiple
- Salaried consulting for longer duration earn out

EARNOUT PERIOD

- 2 years as non-selling, silent partner – you are handing over clients

WHAT DOES THE DEAL LOOK LIKE?

3 ROUTES TO MARKET

Trade and
Asset Sale

Share
Purchase

Employee
Ownership Trust

WHAT DOES THE DEAL LOOK LIKE

SHARE PURCHASE

Share Purchase – Belt and Braces

- Belt and braces approach – acquiring the whole business
- Advice Liability transfers with sale
- Multiple tends to be less as liability taken on
- Staff and advisers usually taken on also
- Typically 2-3 year earn out period
- Future payments determined on financial performance and targets

WHAT DOES THE DEAL LOOK LIKE

TRADE & ASSET SALE

Trade & Asset Sale - "Goodwill"

- Purchases buys "Goodwill" of company – clients
- Run off cover needed for liabilities as retained
- Higher end of multiple range as no liability for purchaser, could involve less robust due diligence
- TUPE Agreements for staff can be agreed
- You are left with a shell business with no clients or assets
- Could provide opportunity to sell a part of your book

WHAT DOES THE DEAL LOOK LIKE

EMPLOYEE OWNERSHIP TRUST (EOT)

Employee Ownership Trust - Modern Approach

- Creation of a trust, ownership passes to existing team – give away controlling stake (51%)
- Gain future buy in from employees having some ownership
- Flexibility of retention of part of business
- Consistency of service and proposition for clients
- Future pay-out based on success of your employees running business over time
- Earnout can be longer as pay-out is typically covered by business cashflow
- No CGT payable

Chris Budd: Business owners need to start stepping back

By Chris Budd | 3rd June 2019 3:05 pm

Almost exactly two years ago, I attended a regional meeting of the Employee Ownership Association. It was a day that genuinely changed my life.

I'd been looking for an exit route for my business, Ovation Finance, for some time, and had been working to make myself the least important person in the business for several years. I was by no means desperate to sell, but wanted options for the future.

THOUGHTS/OBSERVATIONS?

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

HOW LONG
DOES IT TAKE TO EXIT?

WHEN TO START PLANNING

6 – 12 months to completion once deal agreed

Then a 2-3 year earn out depending on shape of deal

If planned exit 3 yrs time, should start now!

Identify target exit date and work backwards

Prepare early to maximise value and be ready for unexpected

Time invested now in CIP, Platforms and De-Risking adds value

FOR SALE

DUE DILIGENCE REQUIREMENTS

WHAT DO YOU NEED?

2 years P&L, balance sheet
Recurring income
AUM: control & opportunity
Client profile: age, location

Past Claim history
Risk in back book e.g. DB transfers
Regulatory returns,
Supervision standards / advice quality

Contracts e.g. property lease, suppliers etc
Staff contracts
Any on-going litigation

INTEGRATION POST THE DEAL...

CHANGES FOR FIRM

Post Completion Changes

Will be detailed in Sale and Purchase Agreement (SPA)

- Investment proposition for clients
- Cultural fit for staff and clients
- Pricing and Fees – adviser / investment / platform
- Compliance approach / provider
- Back office – CRM / accounts format, IT systems
- Staff – roles, structure, pay and benefits
- Brand – most emotive of all?

A balancing act between the emotional need to look after your clients but a practical need to maximise value

HOUSEKEEPING - SIMPLIFICATION OF BUSINESS DRIVES VALUE

THREE KEY AREAS:

- Risk profiling
- Centralised Investment Process
- Platforms

Simple businesses are easier to value
Simplicity = ease of integration

PLATFORMS

MESSY BUSINESS?

Citywire analysis shows most IFAs use three platforms:

- Ideal for one principal new business + others for legacy and specialist needs
- Need to simplify – reduced no. of platforms = ease of asset transfer on sale
- Re-platforming is not straightforward for adviser or client
- Takes time to “tidy up” so start early where advice appropriate

CONCLUSIONS

PREPARATION IS KEY

- Lots to think about for buyers and sellers
- Preparation is key and this will take time to prepare key elements for sale
 - financial DD
 - regulatory DD
 - legal DD
- Housekeeping – start early, keep it simple through risk profiling / CIP / platforms

Keep your eyes on the prize throughout the process and secure the best outcome for yourself and clients

THE TATTON DIFFERENCE

WHY HAVE WE BEEN SUCCESSFUL ?

Low cost – places the adviser at the heart of the value chain 0.15% total

Agnostic on platform, risk profiler, investment style, charging structure – you decide “how”

Non compete with adviser, platform only, IFA only, no D2C, Service Excellence

Breadth of Offering – Primarily Model Portfolios but also OEICS and BPS

Client Protection – We adopt the reliance on others approach
